

No Halo's Needed: Parenting for a Life of Faith

Monday, October 29, 2018

7:00 – 8:00 PM

~ In the Church ~

Presented by Marty and Meg Kelly

In the busyness of everyday life, as we balance family, work, school and activities, how do we find time to notice God and help our children develop a relationship with God? What is our role and how can religious education support this desire? Through the sharing of our own mistakes and moments of joy as parents, we will explore how we can experience God in the ordinary and why raising our children in a community of faith really matters.

~ This program is geared toward parents of Religious Education students of all ages; however, all parents are welcome to attend. ~

Marty and Meg Kelly are Associate Chaplains at the College of the Holy Cross. They are members of St. Mary's Parish and live in Shrewsbury with their three sons.